

BRING OUT THE GENTLEMAN

Gentleman's Collection – Shiraz

If ever there was a gentleman of the winemaking world it was Dr. Henry J. Lindeman. He knew a thing or two about living a fine life, so you would be wise to pay attention.

In 1843, Dr Lindeman, an upstanding man of formidable character, started his own winery. In doing so, he set his sights on civilising a colony of hard-drinking ruffians by introducing them to more gentlemanly pursuits, such as the enjoyment of a refined drop. This longheld tradition continues today with this stately Shiraz, plush with plums, a hint of raspberry, and a dash of fortified wine for a smooth finish. A fine wine by anyone's standard.
